3. ANNIE: Oh! That's where I go for my check-ups. Because no one will recognize me! (Laughing) I'll call you first and we can meet up.
4. ANGELA: That's perfect! See! What do you think Djamila?
5. DJAMILA: Well- what if it doesn't work out, Angie, I mean between you and Pinto? You hardly know each other. What if you end up hating each other?
6. ANGELA: Well if it doesn't work out my Uncle Billy promised I can come and live with him and Layla and Mo.
7. DJAMILA: So you WILL have family there. I'm so glad, (Sadly) if you have a family that supports you.

- 8. ANGELA: It's my ma I'm worried about. She has so hardened her heart against me. She won't talk to her brother either. She thinks everyone's against her.
- 9. DJAMILA: You probably remind her about something in her past – who knows? You told me you never knew your father and she never married. It could be linked to that – like it's something sad she's repressed, and now you are a reminder her of it?
- 10. ANNIE: (Laughing) Ooooh - listen to D...her! Who's been attending life orientation classes then!
- 11. DJAMILA: I love them. They give me such insights into my own behavior – why I'm so shy , or why I cry over stuff.
- 12. ANGELA: You're right- we study everything else but ourselves. Annie? It's YOU I'm worried about.
- 13. ANNIE: I know. I've been too easy-going. I just want the good things in life. But things aren't working out the way I'd like them to. (BEAT) But hey – this is not about me! You're off to a new life. Give me a hug. And I'll see you very soon.

14. ANGELA: And you Djamila. Find that tongue of yours, speak up and just say no. Tell that uncle of yours he can't mess with you!
