75 Years After the End of the War

May 8, 2020 marks the 75th anniversary of the end of World War Two in Europe. DW is remembering this historic day with a variety of special programs in May, including the following:

The documentary World War Two – Capitulation outlines the last months of World War Two: On April 30, 1945 Adolf Hitler ended his own life. A day later, his long-term confidant Joseph Goebbels, along with his wife and six children, swallowed cyanide. The suicide of these two senior Nazis put an abrupt end to the "Thousand-Year Reich." Just a few days later, the Wehrmacht declared its unconditional surrender. The Allies assumed governance over Germany. As the war in Europe drew to an end, American and Japanese troops continued to clash in the Pacific, until the deployment of a new type of weapon changed everything.

Starting Thu 7 May 01:15

In Berlin, traces of World War Two are still visible. To mark the 75th anniversary of the end of the war, Check-in presenter Lukas Stege visits places of remembrance in the German capital. These include the severely damaged Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church on Breitscheidplatz, the German-Russian Museum in Karlshorst and the German Resistance Memorial Center in Berlin-Mitte. A journey through Berlin's past – one that lives on to this day.

The Forest Battle

The Battle of Hürtgen Forest was one of the last battles to take place as World War Two was drawing to a close in Europe. In the fall and winter of 1944/45, an estimated 25,000 to 30,000 German and American soldiers were killed, and countless more wounded, in the Eifel region. For the soldiers involved, Hürtgen Forest became a living hell. The documentary The Battle of Hürtgen Forest tells the story of the fierce clashes.

Jewish Life in Poland

The Nazis murdered 90 percent of Polish Jews during the Holocaust. Now, robust Jewish community life has returned to modern Poland. In part, this is thanks to Michael Schudrich, the current Chief Rabbi of Poland. Schudrich grew up in New York, and first traveled to Poland as a student. Then, the country was still under communist rule. After the fall of the Iron Curtain, he relocated to Warsaw and became Chief Rabbi. He has encouraged many Polish people to remember their Jewish roots. Today, Poland's Jewish community counts around 12,000 active members.

Indonesia – Diversity Under Threat

Indonesia is the world's most populous Muslim nation – far more Muslims live here than in the Middle East. The state of Indonesia encompasses more than 270 million people, living on about 17,000 islands. Following the end of the brutal Suharto dictatorship in 1998, the country became a shining example for the compatibility of democracy and Islam. But in recent years, Islamic preachers of hate have been gaining influence and undermining religious tolerance. Indonesia's Christian minority in particular feels increasingly marginalized. The two-part documentary Indonesia – Diversity Under Threat examines the question of whether the country can withstand this pressure from the fundamentalist camp.

Part 1 Starting Wed 13 May 01:15

Passion Plays

They only take place once every ten years, and they have a centuries-old tradition: the "Oberammergau Passionsspiele," Passion Plays. In 2020, the time has come once again. From May 16 to October 4, residents of the Bavarian village will don long robes and tell the story of the passion of Jesus Christ. The cast of this year's Passion Play has already made headlines: For the first time ever, a Muslim has been given a lead role. Céngiz Görür will play the disciple Judas, the man who betrayed Jesus to the Romans. The play will be performed five times a week for four and a half months – a huge feat for everyone involved. Euromaxx reports.
